TAHU Hosts Educational Symposium for Agents and Brokers

(Tulsa, Ok) – The Tulsa Association of Health Underwriters (TAHU) hosted an Educational Symposium in Tulsa on April 16th at Tulsa Country Club. This event brought together health insurance professionals in Oklahoma with a focus on continuing education and professional growth.

“We are hosting a great lineup focusing on Legislative updates,” said Roger Flippo president. “With all the changed happening in the industry TAHU has acquired an attorney spokes person from a well known law firm. This is an event you don’t want to miss.

The symposium offered health insurance agents the opportunity to participate in continuing education and motivational sessions providing new ideas, new ways to sell and new ways to work smarter. The Symposium covered all segments of the health insurance industry, including legislative, Ethic and things that were not included in the ACA. Attendees received valuable information on what the latest legislative initiatives are in Oklahoma City and Washington and how they will affect the health insurance industry. Presenters included Jan Dumont, Joe Brining, and Reid Rasmussen.

The Symposium featured a wide variety of exhibitors presenting the latest products and services for health insurance professionals.

The National Association of Health Underwriters represents 100,000 professional health insurance agents and brokers who provide insurance for millions of Americans. For more information, please call Rebecca Connel, 918-455-0554, rconnel@flippoinsurance.com
